

Uncle Mort's Funeral

SYNOPSIS

The Action Takes Place in 1961

1st Act: (at the Reception Hall after the internment)

A review of Mort’s life. He was the last “Song and Dance Man” of vaudeville and Night Clubs. He always loved to tell funny stories.

2nd Act: (Same Reception Hall, one year later)

- Forgotten memories of Uncle Mort are mentioned.
- The betrothal of his grand-niece Sara, to Mort's Protégé, Luke, takes place.

Uncle Mort was born on June 14, 1903

He died on June 15, 1961.

The day after he was born.

This show has been approved by the FDA in that it will not cause any new awareness except for an occasional “deja-vue”.